Second Opportunity for Academic Recovery Program Overview

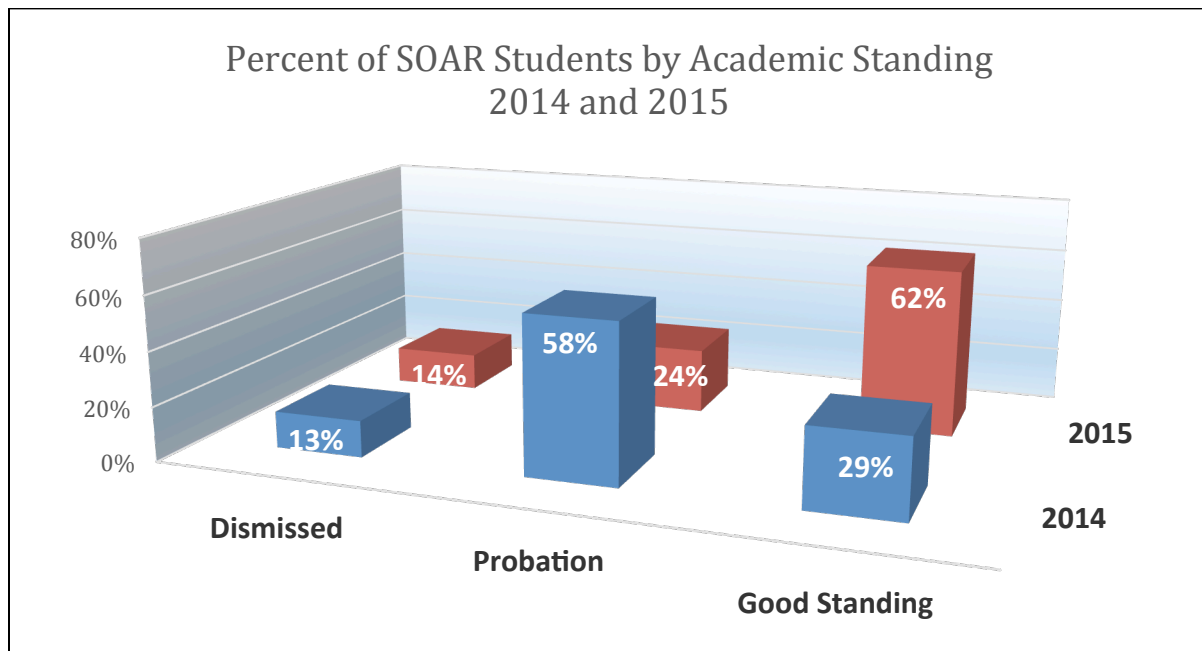

An academic recovery program for a portion of the students dismissed at the end of Spring term, SOAR offers Summer reinstatement and—if successfully completed—the opportunity to continue enrollment into Fall term and beyond. SOAR requirements include enrolling in at least 7 Summer hours, including a 1-hour academic success class, 10 hours of logged study hours per week, a weekly appointment with an academic coach, as well as meetings with instructors and advisors.

What Students Say

- “SOAR taught me how to reduce stress, stay positive, and how to manage my time, but that all came with a lot of work.”
- “This program gave me a second chance and with it I was able to get myself together and become a better student.”
- “SOAR helped me by instilling confidence and motivation back to me. I know resources to help, people to talk to, and most importantly people who hope for me to succeed.”
- “I have definitely grown as an individual in this program.”
- “This course was an individual development class. I was expecting to get much less than I have actually received in this program. I have grown academically, physically, emotionally, and socially.”
- “My goal from this point on is the Dean’s list.”
