Summer Scholars Photo Scavenger Hunt

- Your group posing with UT's mascot (any form)
- The oldest building on campus
- The year UT was founded
- Your group at the Weaving Rainbow Mountain
- 2 separate bronze statues
- Someone pointing to the word “volunteer” or “vol"
- A brick with someone’s name on it
- A street sign named after a Pulitzer Prize Winner
- A greenhouse (for plants)
- Your group walking down Ped Walkway
- A picture with “Monty,” an Edmontosaurus annectens.
- A building named after the co-founder of Garmin (GPS technology)
- The T bus
- The Sunsphere (from a distance is okay)
- Someone in your group reading at Hodges Library
- The Tennessee state flower
- An outdated flyer
- “The Rock”
- A building named after a woman
- Your group in front of Neyland Stadium
- Orange and white checker pattern
- Your group spelling out VOLS with your arms/body
- Smokey statue #1
- A place that serves coffee
- A local band sticker
- Someone in your group doing a handstand
- The Tennessee state flag
- Another country’s flag
- An electric vehicle charging station
- A gargoyle
- An indoor plant
- A street sign named after an athlete
- A recreation/sports field
Rules

- Only one phone per group is allowed for taking photos. All photos must be on one phone.
- The group with the most photos from the list by 6:05 pm wins! There will be staff waiting at Vol Hall to check your photos at the end of the competition.
- Do not take photos of random people. They don’t like that.
- Do not go inside buildings except for Hodges Library and the Student Union.
- Please be safe and obey all traffic laws.
- 5 points (per person, up to 50 points) awarded for participation.
- 5 additional points (per person, up to 50) awarded for winning.