STUDY STRATEGIES FOR FINALS WEEK

- Stay well-rested
- Pace yourself
- Teach the material to a friend
- Ask questions
- Attend the review session
- Quiz yourself
- Meet with your professor or TA
- Take breaks
- Prioritize your study time
- Start early

It’s easier to focus if you adapt to studying by making it fun! Create acronyms, reward yourself, make a song, create a game... do what works for you.

Apply to become a Resident Assistant

Applications go live on November 25, 2019 at tiny.utk.edu/RA

1. Attend an optional interest meeting.
   Interest meetings are the week of November 11-15, 2019. Interest meetings will cover RA eligibility requirements, the application process, and the job description. You will meet the Hall Directors, hear testimonials from current RAs, and have the chance to ask questions.

2. Apply online at tiny.utk.edu/RA.

3. Attend the Candidate Social January 26, 2020, from 4-6pm in Student Union Ballrooms A & B.
   During the Candidate Social, you will engage with other RA applicants and University Housing staff, learn about the interview process and proper interview attire, and enjoy light refreshments.

   RA candidates will select a 2-hour interview time that best accommodates their academic schedule.
